

CH102 The History of Christianity II

Blended Learning

Dr Lai Pak Wah | 3CR

Course Purpose

History of Christianity II is intended as the second of a two-course survey (3 credits each) of the history of Christianity over the last 2,000 years.

In CH102, students will be introduced to the important theological, historical and spiritual movements from 1500-2001. Our journey begins in Europe with the advent of the Protestant Reformation, which will permanently change the face of religion in the Continent and, subsequently, the whole world. This is followed by an analysis of the developments that follow this Reformation: the rise of American & English Protestantism and spirituality, the growth of the evangelical movement, especially in America, and the Catholic Counter Reformation. Attention will also be given to the Enlightenment period, which would significantly influence and also challenge the claims of the Christian faith. Following these, we will turn our attention to the development of Christianity worldwide, with a focus on Christianity in China, in particular, and Asia in general.

About the Lecturers

Dr Lai Pak Wah is a lecturer of Church History and Historical Theology at BGST. A graduate from BGST (Grad Dip CS) and Regent College, Vancouver (MCS, ThM), Dr Lai completed his PhD at Durham University, where he specialised in Christianity in Late Antiquity, that is, the history, theology and spirituality of the 2nd – 5th century church fathers (also known as Patristic Studies).

Besides his research on John Chrysostom, Dr Lai has also published on the interface between theology & medicine in The Dao of Healing: Christian Perspectives on Chinese Medicine. Previously, Dr Lai was a full-time lecturer at the School of Business, Singapore Polytechnic, and engaged in investment promotion work with the Singapore Economic Development Board. He is the current Principal of BGST.

Dr Tan Kok Choon is a graduate from Regent College (MCS, History) and has completed a Ph.D researching on the conversion narrative and teachings of John Sung at Liverpool Hope University. Topics of his research interest include contextualization issues, conversion studies and Chinese Christianity. He is also an experienced history teacher at a local independent school.

Learning Outcomes

Like CH101, this survey course will identify the significant historical movements between 1500-2001 and consider their relevance for contemporary Christians, especially those living in Asia. Upon completion of the course, students will:

- i. be familiarised with the historical developments of the Protestant, Catholic, Orthodox and other Christian traditions from 16th – 20th centuries.
- ii. gain the ability to analyse primary sources from this period. This includes historical, theological and spirituality texts.
- iii. be able to reflect on the historical, theological & spiritual insights gleaned from these diverse periods, and apply them in the contemporary contexts.
- iv. grow in their ability in team work, design and lead class discussions that will encourage dialogue and fellowship between their course mates.

Assignments

The prescribed assignments are 6 online exercises, a group case study presentation, a book review (1,500 words) and an essay (3,000 words).
