Theology of Mission

Dr Kwa Kiem Kiok

About the Course

---

Missions today is often done pragmatically; and since many factors influence the practice of mission, the biblical basis of missions is presumed. This course will study the principle texts of the Old and New Testaments dealing with mission, evangelism and discipleship in order to listen once again to these texts and so be renewed and refreshed again for the task of missions. The major missiological themes and will be discussed so as to understand their significance for the practice of missions today. Students are expected to read before hand and come prepared for discussion.

About the Lecturer

Kiem-Kiok is Lecturer in missiology and interdisciplinary studies. She brings her legal and theological training, as well as work experience in marketplace, church and para-church organisations into this role. Previously she was lecturer and registrar at East Asia School of Theology where she taught a variety of courses in intercultural studies. She has published on a diverse range of subjects including a contextual commentary on Matthew (ATA, 2017), contributed to the Dictionary of Christian Spirituality (Zondervan, 2011) as well as on religious harmony in Faith in an Age of Terror (BGST, 2018). She and her husband, a Methodist pastor, enjoy walking in the outdoors.
